2007 McLAREN VALE SHIRAZ GRENACHE

A classic interpretation of a blend of grapes so ideally suited to the McLaren Vale region.

The Shiraz makes up 75% of the blend and has predominantly been sourced from vineyards of the coastal edge of McLaren Vale, which have given slightly more subtle and aromatic characters with slightly less palate weight and body compared to more centrally located vineyards sites in the Vale. The coastal fruit gives earthy blackberries and spice to the wine, rounding out the palate and the Grenache offers liqueur cherries, raspberries and a savoury, meaty pepperiness. The two varieties working in harmony give the wine excellent balance, and the wine drinks very well already but could certainly be cellared for another 5 – 8 years.

Very enjoyable by itself in a decent sized red wine glass, it would also be an excellent match with roasted duck, pork or slow cooked beef and lamb dishes. Try it with racks of lamb or beef roasted in a smoky kettle BBQ.
