2008 ADELAIDE HILLS PINOT GRIGIO

Created with premium fruit sourced from the nearby Adelaide Hills region, The Sermon Tree shows a brilliant transparent pale white/light grey colour. Enticing aromas of pears, apples, grapefruit & citrus lead to a tightly bound palate of pears and mineral notes, finishing with cleansing acidity. The pear fruit is evident from the front palate right through to the almost 'crunchy' finish.

A complex and complete wine, with a mouth-watering characteristic which has a habit of leaving you always wanting another sip....

This wine is very much a food-orientated style; great by itself, but far better with the right foods, especially light and fresh seafood dishes. Try it with fresh prawns cooked simply with chilli and garlic with fresh herbs such as parsley or coriander, calamari fritti, or seared scallops with ginger and spring onions, along with crisp fresh green salads.
